

Virtual Desktop Infrastructure (VDI) Starter Kit Promotion

Transform your Desktop Infrastructure with Virtualization

For a limited time, VMware is providing customers with a free VMware Virtual Desktop Infrastructure (VDI) Starter Kit (an $1815 value) with a qualifying VI3 purchase. The VMware VDI Starter Kit contains everything you need for a server-based virtual desktop computing solution for ten virtual desktops, including VMware ESX Server, VirtualCenter and the new Virtual Desktop Manager 2 for desktop connection brokering.

Summary

This is a promotion for VMware customers to receive the opportunity to try a small deployment of Virtual Desktop Infrastructure (VDI), in the format of a VDI Starter Kit, free of charge, subject to the terms and conditions below. A year of VMware Gold Support and Subscription will also be included with the free VDI Starter Kit. The total commercial list price value of the VDI Starter Kit is $1500, plus $315 for VMware Gold Support and Subscription for one year.
